California Continues to Kill...

Protest the Scheduled Execution of 75 year-old

Clarence Ray Allen

DESPITE this man's age and poor health,
DESPITE the racism and flaws of the death penalty,
DESPITE the pending legislation that would halt all executions in California

Clarence Ray Allen, an American Indian, is scheduled to be executed at 12:01 am on January 17th. We demand an end to the inhumane death penalty. After killing Stanley Tookie Williams on December 13th, the state is speeding up the pace of executions. After Clarence Ray Allen they will attempt to execute Michael Morales, and possibly several more individuals in 2006. We need to build the movement to halt their execution machine!

PROTEST

San Quentin East Gate

Monday, January 16th 8:00 pm

You can park on E. Francisco Blvd but expect to walk 1-2 miles to get to the prison. Please dress warmly and bring a flashlight
